

Countryside Conservation Funding Scheme
Cultural Rehabilitation/Revitalisation Project

Project Number	EP86/27/24/10-10
Project Proponent	School of Design of The Hong Kong Polytechnic University
Project Title	Co-Building Kuk Po: Creating, Sharing, Learning &amp; Enjoying
Target Site	Kuk Po
Project Description*	Co-Building Kuk Po aims at “History re-creates the village, Art reshapes the village”. By setting up the shared road signages, guided tours, Spring and Autumn Carnivals and local exhibitions, holding participatory workshops, training Co-Learning Kuk Po Ambassadors, educational courses etc., so that we can create cross-generation, community integration and cohesion of villagers. Kuk Po people and the Public can understand the uniqueness of village. Showing that the village has the potential to develop diverse industries such as education, agricultural products, catering, crafts, and local tourism. The platform of “Kuk Post!” strengthens the connection between local and overseas villagers, generations and institutions, enhance dialogues between the history of Kuk Po and the recent society, and hope to attract new generations to inherit the spirit of Kuk Po and the return of overseas residents. In our project, we take Kuk Po out of Kuk Po, and also bring Kuk Po people back to Kuk Po.
Project Period	1 August 2023 to 31 March 2025
Grant Approved	$3,000,000

*The project description is provided by the project proponent.